78 Neal Street,
London WC2.

5th August, 1996.

Dear Robert,

Thank you so much for giving us a great interview last Thursday. After all that moving around of times I thought we would never get you in front of the camera! Your astute analysis of the subject will give the programme the biting edge it needs, and your ties will brighten the screen considerably!

I hope you enjoyed your week by the seaside. You certainly deserved a break after such a long evening with the Cafe film crew. Thank you also for assisting in the preparation of the charts - I feel we've got some good stories to build our drama reconstruction around.

Doubtless we'll speak very soon. I will forward the release forms shortly.

With very best wishes,

Helen Sorrell
